2010 Ford Mustang Spy Shots

The persistent paparazzi lead so many trends, and the legend of the Ford Mustang is not one to be left alone. Just this week, the 2010 Ford Mustang has been snapped under wraps by the folks at Priddy & Co. From what we can tell, it appears to hold pretty strongly to the current S197 Ford Mustang platform, but just might have some influential applications from the Giugiaro Ford Mustang feature a bit ago in Los Angeles. Want to see what it looks like? Better stop in and take a peek!

Steeda to Celebrate 20 Year Anniversary

To mark off a 20 year celebration of massaging the Ford Mustang, Steeda is happier than ever to be in the aftermarket enthusiast market. Steeda is continuing to grow and expand with their new Valdosta, Georgia facility. The 20 year celebration will be held at the convention center and the South Georgia Motorsport park.

Two Rehagen Racing Ford Mustangs in Top 10 Opener

The latest results for the Roush sponsored Rehagen Racing team show some promising results, with the No. 59 and No. 60 finishing in the top 10 at Daytona Beach. For some time, it seemed as though the Ford Mustangs would take spots 1 and 2, but some faulty communications during a late pit stop caused both cars some crucial time losses. These losses would prove to be detrimental to the two Roush racers, but would still leave them finishing with decent points standing.
