January 2008

Volume 2 Issue 1

Happy Birthday Carroll Shelby

It's official. Mustang icon Carroll Shelby celebrates his 85th birthday. Shelby was born in Leesburg, Texas on January 11, 1923. Some 85 years later, his name is associated with performance Mustangs around the world. Here's to another great year of living and another great year of automotive innovations. Speaking of Shelby, his 1969 Shelby GT500 Convertible Mustang will soon be on the auctioning block at the 37th Annual Scottsdale Barrett-Jackson Collector Car Event in Scottsdale, Ariz. The car is one of only 246 Ford Shelby GT500 convertibles built in 1969. It's definitely a looker, inside and out. And it's about to end up in the hands of one lucky guy or gal. It's been reported that Shelby plans to hand the keys off in person.

2008 Warriors in Pink Ford Mustang

Ford has unveiled their latest act of charity, a special Mustang that will benefit the Susan G. Komen breast cancer society. This limited edition Ford Mustang has some special features you won't find on any other car and should help introduce a whole new demographic to this classic car.

2008 Saleen S302E Ford Mustang

Saleen Automotive has a longstanding reputation of producing some of the most unique Ford Mustangs in existence. This year, their S302E Ford Mustang exceeds all expectations.

Cars of the Month for January

Cindy and John Vaughn – 1995 Mustang Convertible and Mike Anderson – 2003 Mustang GT.
